THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

Following is: Letter dated 28 May 1951 from Nikolai Dimitrov to Ivan Dochev, leader of the Bulgarian National Front who is residing in Austria.

"I have not come in contact for two years now. I had to keep still, as the Russians were watching me. Even today they are watching me. I am waiting for the International Committee which is coming personally for that matter. Let it come and then we will see who will be disciplined. Our two-line liberals will remain with their finger in their mouth and they will hear from me. I am not afraid of their cries, but I fear the situation of the refugees. Since the situation is just as miserable elsewhere as it is here, we must not expect an organized situation."

"As soon as someone gets to Athens, he considers himself as a lawyer. Work cannot be done this way. During my absence, all the work we had done was dissolved. By what? By Golegnov himself, who took advantage of my absence to satisfy his personal interests. He never ceased to obstruct and all had recognized me as their leader. During my absence, he started associating with persons with a mysterious past. He formed an organization, not entirely national, but entirely Macedonian, of ex-YUGO-SLAV members. He cultivated me in the presence of official persons. (What he exactly said, I do not know. Friends of Golegnov wrote to me recently to protest against Golegnov's appointment as representative of the National Front in Greece; and this, because he is surrounded by Macedonians only."
